Reflection

"I am standing upon the seashore. Suddenly a ship, at my side spreads her white sails in the morning breeze and starts out for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength and I stand and watch her until she shows only as a ribbon of white cloud just above where the sea and sky mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone"

Question –"Gone where?"

Gone from my sight - that is all. She is just as large in mast, and hull and spar as she was when she left my sight.

And just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of destination.

Her diminished size is in me, not in her and just at the moment when someone at my side says -

"She is gone" - there are other voices ready on another shore, ready to take up the glad shout "Here she comes!"

And that is Dying"
